

Investigation of the Week:

A 4 year old boy presents to the ED with left eye pain after being hit in his left eye with a bullet from a 'Nerf' gun. The injury occurred about 1 hour ago. There are no associated injuries.

Carefully look at the image.

1. What is shown in the above image?
2. List 4 important features on history and 6 examination findings which should be obtained.
3. How do you grade this condition?
4. List the emergent management of this condition?
5. What is the disposition of this patient?
6. List complications.

