

Neurological Emergencies and Management Optimisation

Emergency Medicine - Network 1 Education Day

Tuesday 21st May 2019

Auditorium, Education Centre - Liverpool Hospital

- 7.45am Registration
- 8.00am Intracerebral Haemorrhage - the latest evidence to guide your management
Dr Jennifer Davidson, NDOT, DEMENT, Liverpool Hospital
- 8.45am Subarachnoid Haemorrhage-the current state of play
A/Prof Kent Robinson, Senior Staff Specialist ED, Liverpool Hospital
- 9.30am Status epilepticus- What's new
Dr Ben Taylor – Staff Specialist ED, Liverpool Hospital
- 10.15am Morning Tea
- 11.00am Non traumatic weakness
A/Prof Anna Holdgate, Senior Staff Specialist ED, Liverpool Hospital
- 11.45am Intracerebral hypertension and herniation syndromes
Dr Una Nic Ionmhain – Staff Specialist ED, Liverpool Hospital
- 12.30 Lunch
- 1.30pm Acute stroke- thrombolysis and clot retrieval-the Latest evidence
Dr Alex Buttfield – Staff Specialist ED, Campbelltown Hospital
- 2.15pm Meningitis and encephalitis– current therapies and controversies
Dr Rachel Turner – DEMENT, Staff Specialist ED, Liverpool Hospital
- 3.00pm Break
- 3.15pm Rares but scaries – Neurological Cases
Dr Peter Wyllie – Senior Staff Specialist ED, Liverpool Hospital

Course Coordinator

Dr Jennifer Davidson
NDOT, DEMENT Liverpool Hospital jennifer.davidson2@health.nsw.gov.au

RSVP

If you would like to attend please email:

Stella Butt
ED Secretary Liverpool Hospital
stella.butt@health.nsw.gov.au

OPEN TO ALL
EMERGENCY MEDICINE
TRAINEES