

EMERGENCY MEDICINE TOXICOLOGY MASTERCLASS by the experts

NETWORK 1 trainees and open to EM trainees across NSW

THURSDAY 4th APRIL

Liverpool Hospital TRM Education centre- Conference Room 3

7.45 am	Registration
8.00- 9:15 am	General approach to the poisoned patient including decontamination –Professor Andrew Dawson- Clinical toxicologist, Clinical Director NSW Poisons Information Centre
9.15 – 10 am	Complexities in managing the sedated poisoned patient – A/Prof Darren Roberts
10- 10.30	Morning Tea
10.30- 11am	Individualising the management of paracetamol poisoning – A/Professor Darren Roberts
11-11.30 am	Serotonin syndrome and related – Professor Andrew Dawson
11.30-12.00	Advances in the management of cardiovascular toxicity – A/Professor Darren Roberts- Clinical Toxicologist
12.00-12.30	Questions for the experts- Andrew Dawson and Darren Roberts
12.30- 1.15	LUNCH provided
1.15- 2pm	Approach to the behaviourally disturbed patient- Dr Jom Jardolin –Emergency Staff Specialist-Liverpool
2-2.45	Snake and spider Bite envenomation- Dr Andi Rauch- ED Advanced Trainee
2.45- 3. 30	Toxicology cases- Dr Una Nic Ionmhain- ED Staff Specialist Liverpool
3.30- 4	Antidotes- What, when and how ?- Dr Courtney Peros- ED Advanced Trainee

RSVP: Dr Jennifer Davidson –Network Director of training, DENT Liverpool Hospital Jennifer.davidson2@health.nsw.gov.au

NSW
poisons Information Centre
the children's hospital at Westmead