

PAEDIATRICS DAY

Thursday 25th July 2019

Main Lecture Theatre, Bankstown Hospital

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

or visit

<https://tinyurl.com/y553egdp>

- 0800-0830 Registration
- 0830-0910 Sugar, Spice, and all things (not so) nice.
An overview of paediatric endocrinopathies in the ED.
Dr Uma Visser, Paediatric Endocrinologist, Campbelltown & Canberra Hospitals
- 0910-1030 Time to get interactive!
Everything you ever wanted to know about paediatric trauma.
Dr Donovan Dwyer, Paediatric Emergency Specialist & Head of Paediatric Trauma
Sydney Children's & St George Hospitals
- 1030-1100 Morning Tea
- 1100-1140 If you thought Millennials were bad...
Welcome to the world of Gen Z: Approaching the adolescent in 2019.
Dr Sarah Ford, Adolescent Medicine Specialist, The Children's Hospital at Westmead
- 1140-1220 It's just a virus... isn't it?
How not to (hopefully) miss sepsis.
Dr Arjun Rao, Paediatric Emergency Specialist, Sydney Children's & Campbelltown Hospitals
- 1220-1300 Watch out, measles is about!
How to diagnose common childhood rashes in ED.
Dr Claire Jardine, Paediatric Emergency Specialist, Bankstown & Sydney Children's Hospitals
- 1300-1345 Lunch
- 1345-1425 Don't forget the bubbles.
Children with behavioural disorders in the ED.
Dr Melanie Berry, Emergency Specialist, Orange Base Hospital & Royal Flying Doctor Service
- 1425-1505 My head hurts and I can't see properly.
Extending management of children with concussion to outside the ED.
Professor Gary Browne, Paediatric Emergency Specialist, The Children's Hospital at Westmead
- 1505-1545 NETS to the rescue!
Facilitating an unbroken continuity of care.
Dr Jeanette Marchant, NETS Consultant & Paediatric Emergency Specialist
NETS & The Children's Hospital at Westmead
- 1545-1600 Feedback and Close.

EMERGENCY MEDICINE NETWORK TRAINING PROGRAM

NETWORK 1

