

A 55 year old gentleman presents to ED with severe abdominal pain and pre-syncope.

The following investigation was obtained during his assessment:

Discussion points:

- What investigation modality is this?
- Comment on the major pathology observed in this investigation.
- What are the common causes for this finding?
- What is your understanding of the components of this investigation modality?
- Describe your management approach.