

The Tamworth Primary Course

A comprehensive course and study guide for the ACEM Primary Exam

“The Viva”

October 10th and 11th, 2019

- Small group Viva teaching - talk your way to success through role play and FACEM demonstrations
- Overview of the highest yield Viva topics to concentrate your study
- “Stop and correct” immediate feedback skills stations in small groups as well as specific workshops including:
 - ⇒ How to handle a prop (bones and models)
 - ⇒ Important physiology images and how to master them (with accompanying booklet of high yield images)
 - ⇒ McMinns dissection images
 - ⇒ Investigations and radiology pearls
- Full trial Viva exam with individual feedback to polish your performance
- Included is a copy of our 22 week comprehensive, integrated study guide with tips on how to prepare for the Viva and practice questions

Check out our website for more details and to download a registration form:

www.tamworthprimarycourse.com

If you are a DEMENT and would like a copy of our study guide please email us:

pacemtamworth@gmail.com

Registration cost is $250 and closes two weeks prior to dates, numbers are limited to ensure the best experience so get in early.

We are a not for profit group of FACEMS who are dedicated to providing high quality education for trainees in the regions.